

From train station Dilbeek

By bus De Lijn 820 (total: 22 minutes)

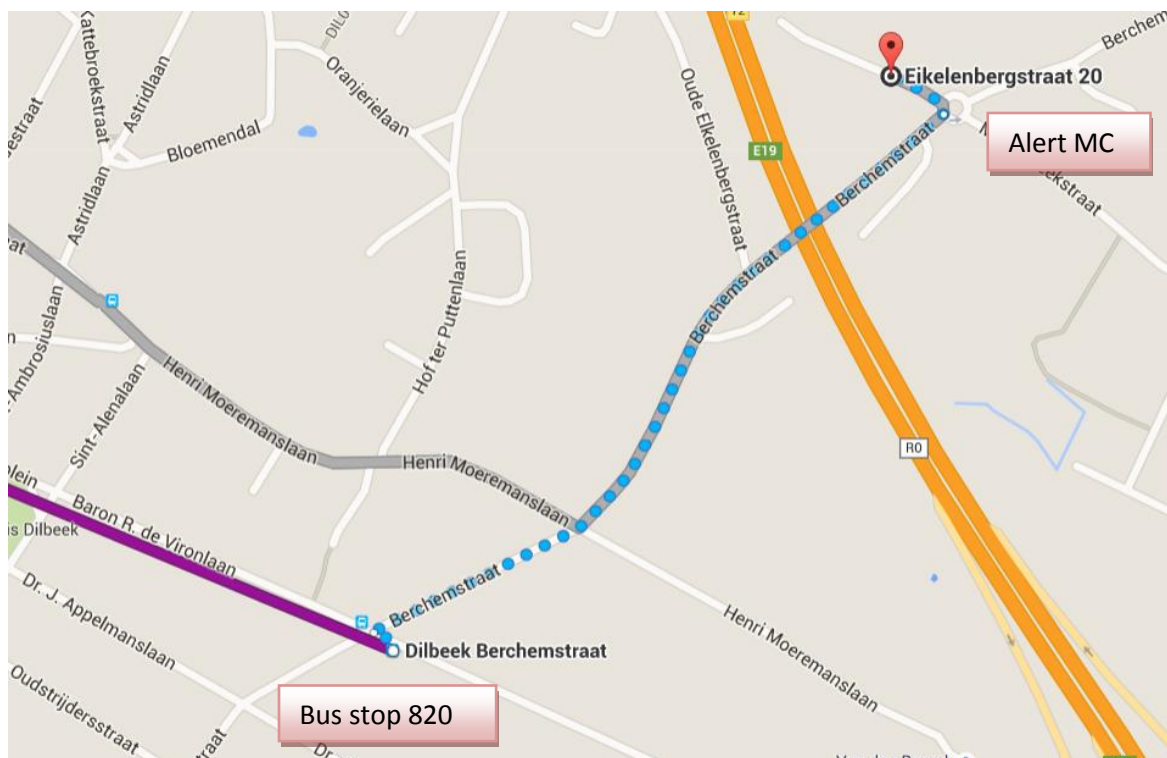

Leave the train station of Dilbeek (Stationsstraat) and walk up to a T-junction. On your way you will pass by a police office. At the T-junction the Robert Dansaertlaan crosses the Stationsstraat. In the Robert Dansaertlaan are two bus stops. Take the one that is on the same side of the police office.

Take bus 820 direction Dilbeek to stop Dilbeek Berchemstraat (8 stops, 9 minutes).

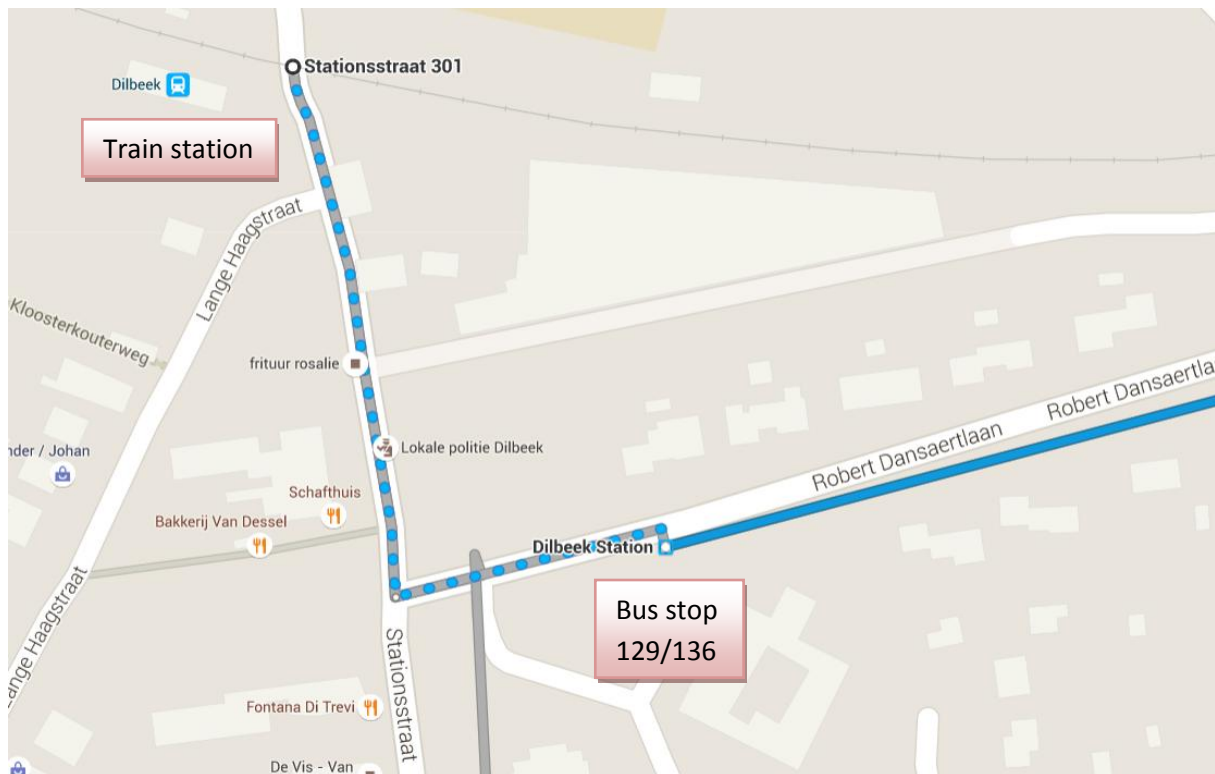

The stop Dilbeek Berchemstraat is at the Baron R. Vironlaan. You walk back to the intersection you just passed by bus. Baron R. de Vironlaan crosses the Berchemstraat.

Take the direction of the Berchemstraat (in which the house numbers go up). You will arrive at an intersection with the Berchemstraat and the Henri Moeremanslaan. Go straight ahead and remain on the Berchemstraat. Continue walking until you cross the highway and arrive at a roundabout. Turn left into the Eikelenbergstraat. The building is at the right side (number 20). Our office is in the left wing of the building.

By bus De Lijn 129/136 (total: 23 minutes)

Leave the train station of Dilbeek (Stationsstraat) and walk up to a T-junction. On your way you will pass by a police office. At the T-junction the Robert Dansaertlaan crosses the Stationsstraat. In the Robert Dansaertlaan are two bus stops. Take the one that is on the opposite side of the police office.

Take the bus 129 towards Brussels or the 136 towards Alsemberg. Both busses will stop at the bus stop Dilbeek H. Moeremanslaan (7 stops, 7 minutes).

The stop Dilbeek H. Moeremanslaan is at the Henri Moeremanslaan. Continue walking to the junction with Berchemstraat. Turn left into the Berchemstraat. Continue walking until you cross the highway and arrive at a roundabout. Turn left into Eikelenbergstraat. The building is at the right side (number 20). Our office is in the left wing of the building.

